GARCIA OPERA HOUSE

Cyrano de Bergerac

by Edmond Rostand

ACT I

The stage in the Hotel de Bourgogne, decorated and ready for a theatrical performance. The characters begin to enter, ready for the performance.

ACT II

The next morning.
The pastry shop of Ragoueneau.

ACT III

A few weeks later.
A little square in the Marais quarter of Paris.

ACT IV

A month later.
The post occupied by Cyrano and his cadets and officers at Arras.

ACT V

Fifteen years later.
The courtyard of The Ladies of the Cross in Paris.

We would like to express our gratitude to Holm Bursum for the generous use of the beautiful and historic Garcia Opera House. Also, many thanks to Jean Stanley for her help and cooperation.
