

THE MOUSETRAP

Socorro Community Theater

BIOGRAPHIES

JUNE 2007

Bryan Hurtgen (Director), one of the founding members of SCT, finds himself for the third time this year in the Director's chair. He asks, "What, am I crazy? No, it seems my passion for the theater grows bigger and bigger every year...or perhaps I've really just lost it!" Bryan would like to thank everyone involved in this production: from those behind the stage as well as the actors on the stage. He says, "It's always amazing and wonderful how everything comes together." He would also like to thank his wife Lauren and his daughters Samantha and Julie for their constant support.

Skye Fort (Mollie) has been heavily involved with SCT for the past six years. When she's not involved in a production, she enjoys...wait, she's always involved in a production! Skye would like to thank Bryan for this wonderful opportunity, and her mom for her support.

Kevin Lambson (Giles), an eternal student at New Mexico Tech, has been around since 2000. His activity in theater has been on and off. Recently playing Bob Cratchet in A Christmas Carol and Pharoh in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor DreamCoat, Kevin enjoys acting and being able to bring a smile to the faces in the audience.

Ruth White (Mrs. Boyle) is a retired guidance counselor, originally from Columbus, Ohio. Her first performance for SCT was as Nora Ludlow in Cactus Pass. Ruth has two adorable and adoring dogs, and is currently writing a novel.

Cirk Bejnar (Christopher Wren) has been in Socorro almost a year. His last performance was as Topper in A Christmas Carol at NMT last fall. His hobbies include reading and writing. He thanks Thaddeus Bejnar for encouraging him to try out for The Mousetrap.

THE MOUSETRAP

Socorro Community Theater

BIOGRAPHIES

JUNE 2007

Bryan Hurtgen (Director), one of the founding members of SCT, finds himself for the third time this year in the Director's chair. He asks, "What, am I crazy? No, it seems my passion for the theater grows bigger and bigger every year...or perhaps I've really just lost it!" Bryan would like to thank everyone involved in this production: from those behind the stage as well as the actors on the stage. He says, "It's always amazing and wonderful how everything comes together." He would also like to thank his wife Lauren and his daughters Samantha and Julie for their constant support.

Skye Fort (Mollie) has been heavily involved with SCT for the past six years. When she's not involved in a production, she enjoys...wait, she's always involved in a production! Skye would like to thank Bryan for this wonderful opportunity, and her mom for her support.

Kevin Lambson (Giles), an eternal student at New Mexico Tech, has been around since 2000. His activity in theater has been on and off. Recently playing Bob Cratchet in A Christmas Carol and Pharoh in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor DreamCoat, Kevin enjoys acting and being able to bring a smile to the faces in the audience.

Ruth White (Mrs. Boyle) is a retired guidance counselor, originally from Columbus, Ohio. Her first performance for SCT was as Nora Ludlow in Cactus Pass. Ruth has two adorable and adoring dogs, and is currently writing a novel.

Cirk Bejnar (Christopher Wren) has been in Socorro almost a year. His last performance was as Topper in A Christmas Carol at NMT last fall. His hobbies include reading and writing. He thanks Thaddeus Bejnar for encouraging him to try out for The Mousetrap.

THE MOUSETRAP

Socorro Community Theater

BIOGRAPHIES

JUNE 2007

John Baca-Saavedra is a Socorro native who works for the NM Human Services Department. He has been involved with theater for many years, and has worked with Teatro Latino and Los Nortenos Writing Group in Seattle. He has also written several plays, which were self-produced in the Northwest. This is his first production with SCT.

Katy Weaver is a seventeen year old high school senior, and will be attending UNM in the fall as a Theatre major. Katy played Cassie in SCT's production of Rumors. She promised herself she would take a break from acting this spring, but, alas, the charms of SCT have seduced her yet again. Along with acting, Katy enjoys belly dancing, reading, and shopping for various things she doesn't need. She would like to thank her parents for their support.

Bill Stone (Mr. Paravacini) started acting in a previous century, but returned to the stage in 2004 with NMT's Fiddler on the Roof. Since then, he has been in Noises Off with SCT, and A Christmas Carol at NMT.

Alan Roes (Trotter) has been performing with SCT for several years now. He has also been in many productions with New Mexico Tech. He was most recently seen as Scrooge in NMT's A Christmas Carol. He would like to thank the cast and crew for all the fun he has had with this show.

THE MOUSETRAP

Socorro Community Theater

BIOGRAPHIES

JUNE 2007

John Baca-Saavedra is a Socorro native who works for the NM Human Services Department. He has been involved with theater for many years, and has worked with Teatro Latino and Los Nortenos Writing Group in Seattle. He has also written several plays, which were self-produced in the Northwest. This is his first production with SCT.

Katy Weaver is a seventeen year old high school senior, and will be attending UNM in the fall as a Theatre major. Katy played Cassie in SCT's production of "Rumors". She promised herself she would take a break from acting this spring, but alas, the charms of SCT have seduced her yet again. Along with acting, Katy enjoys belly dancing, reading, and shopping for various things she doesn't need. She would like to thank her parents for their support.

Bill Stone (Mr. Paravacini) started acting in a previous century, but returned to the stage in 2004 with NMT's Fiddler on the Roof. Since then, he has been in Noises Off with SCT, and A Christmas Carol at NMT.

Alan Roes (Trotter) has been performing with SCT for several years now. He has also been in many productions with New Mexico Tech. He was most recently seen as Scrooge in NMT's A Christmas Carol. He would like to thank the cast and crew for all the fun he has had with this show.