Directors Notes

*Do you believe in ghosts? Arthur Kipps did not, until . . .
Are you certain of the boundary between imagination and reality? Arthur Kipps was, until . . .
Do you agree that a function of theater is to trigger emotional release? The great Victorian actor and theater manager Sir Henry Irving did. So did Arthur Kipps, although he had no desire to become an Irving. And so also do all of us who have collaborated on this production. We aim to send you home from the Garcia Opera House with your thoughts activated, your imagination stretched, your emotions stimulated, and your pulse rate still a little elevated. We hope you enjoy the experience.*
