

2006 NEW MEXICO ROAD RACE (CHAMPIONSHIP) SATURDAY JULY 1, 2006 ESTANCIA, NEW MEXICO

The 2006 New Mexico Road Race Championships are an ACA sanctioned event (so bring your annual or buy a one-day) to take place in Estancia New Mexico. Estancia is in the Manzano Mountains and can be reached from Albuquerque by taking the I-40 east and exiting at Moriarty/Estancia. Go south to Estancia. Parking and staging will be at the Estancia High School on your right-hand side. Just follow the signs.

The course is a loop with rolling hills, flat sections, and a fast finish at Mile Post 90. All categories will go 44 miles except the P12 race which will go 88 miles and the 10-12, 13-14 juniors who will race 15 miles. The race will roll neutral out of town to NM542 then a right on NM55 to the finish. All the good details, maps, etc at www.khsnm.com/proposal. You must be an annual member of the ACA to win a medal.

Registration is $20. No late fees, no unattached fees, juniors race for free in all categories. The first 50 pre-registered riders at BikeReg.com will get a free State Championships T-shirt. Old fashioned pre-registration can be sent to New Mexico Road Race Championships, 1109 Copper NE Albuquerque NM 87106. Make checks payable to Jamie Ryan-White.

Onsite registration will open at 6:30am and close at 8:00am. No exceptions. None. Nada. Nunka.
